Voice over:

And so began the journey north to safety, to our place in the sun. Among us we found a new leader: the man who came from the sky, the Gyro Captain. And just as Pappagallo had planned, we traveled far beyond the reach of men on machines.

The juice, the precious juice, was hidden in the vehicles. As for me, I grew to manhood. In the fullness of time, I became the leader, the Chief of the Great Northern Tribe.

And the Road Warrior? That was the last we ever saw of him. He lives now … only in my memories.
