Title (roller):
Central Industrial Prison is a "New Generation" maximum security facility designed to house the prison system's most violent, unmanageable and predatory inmates.

For the past 37 months Central Industrial has been operating in a state of "lockdown" whereby all inmates remain confined to their cells. This is the longest lockdown in the history of the Bureau of Prisons.
Conflicting claims concerning the events that brought about the October 25 "lockdown" led the Committee on the Judiciary to commission a report on its causes ...
