This is a true story but due to legal implications all characters have been fictionalised

In Memory of Christopher Dale Flannery

Title:

In 1958 H Division was established as the Maximum Security Wing of Her Majesty's Prison Pentridge.

To that Division are relegated prisoners of three classes: those thought to be in danger of serious ill-treatment by other prisoners; those who are undergoing disciplinary punishment; and those considered to be dangerous.

No more secure place of penal confinement is in use by the Australian Department of Social Welfare.
